

OUTLAW WITNESS

A WESTERN PROCLAMATION OF FAITH

THE REAL DEAL. JESUS IS ALIVE.

We believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of the living God. The real deal. The One who took our sin to the cross, paid for it in blood, and came back from the dead. He is alive right now. We stake our lives on it.

That is the Jesus we are talking about. The Warrior who comes for people the world has given up on. The Healer who binds up a broken heart. The Savior who walks into the wreckage, calls us by name, and brings us into life, abundance, and freedom.

The Outlaw to this world's systems. He will not bow to money, power, appearances, or religion that crushes the very people it claims to help. He belongs to the Father. We belong to Him.

THE MISFITS. THE BROKEN AND RESTORED.

If you are looking for religious leaders with clean answers and spotless lives, we are probably not it. We are the people who need a Savior. The ones tired of pretending. The ones carrying things a smile cannot cover. The ones learning to tell the truth and let God meet us there. That is our crew.

We come with the dust, the shame, the questions, and the places we cannot fix. We bring our sin into the light. We turn toward Jesus. His grace gives us somewhere to stand. His Spirit teaches us how to walk.

He bought our freedom. He paid for it in blood. His Word is good. His promises hold. We are not apologizing for the One who gave us truth, life, and freedom.

"For freedom Christ has set us free."

GALATIANS 5:1 (ESV, excerpt)

So we stand. When the old chains pull, we stand in Him. We follow our King and learn to love the people riding beside us.

A VOICE. ANOINTED. SENT.

A VOICE CRYING OUT IN THE WILDERNESS.

“In the wilderness prepare the way of the LORD”

ISAIAH 40:3 (ESV, excerpt)

Out here, away from the noise, we carry that call: prepare the way. The King is alive. Come out of hiding. Bring the real you. The exhausted you. The angry you. The you that has run out of answers. There is room for you beside the fire.

SETTING CAPTIVES FREE.

“to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives”

ISAIAH 61:1 (ESV, excerpt)

Jesus took up that proclamation in Luke 4:18-21. We follow Him into it. Into the pain. Into the loneliness. Into the inner war people carry without a word. We believe He still rescues. Still restores. Still calls people out of bondage and into life.

That is why we saddle up. Why we spend time with horses, step into the wilderness, and sit long enough to hear somebody's real story. We ride with the broken. We tell the truth. We pray. We stay. We point to Jesus and trust Him with the work only He can do.

YOU DO NOT HAVE TO RIDE ALONE.

Some of us are walking through the valley of the shadow of death. The pain is real. So is our Shepherd. We can face evil because He is with us. His perfect love casts out fear. And when your legs give out, this crew is called to come alongside you. (Psalm 23:4; 1 John 4:18; Galatians 6:2)

You do not have to pretend you are fine to have a place here. We need Him too. We walk this trail together, learning obedience, carrying burdens, and watching restored lives become shelter for somebody else.

Jesus is alive. Freedom has been won.

We ride for His brand.

Scripture excerpts: English Standard Version (ESV), © 2001 Crossway. Used by permission. All rights reserved. Other scripture language is paraphrased. Supporting passages: John 10:10; 14:6; Galatians 5:13; 1 Corinthians 15:3-4.